1. The insured person shall receive compensation during 30 days of the day of termination or resignation, or end of contract in order not to exceed 90 days.

Remarks:

- Force majeure refers to fires, storms, or earthquakes as well as other disasters.

Office throughout the country.

Methods of receiving benefit payments

- Through the following 11 banks:
  - Krung Thai Bank
  - Ayudhya Bank
  - Thanachart Bank
  - Kasikornbank
  - Siam Commercial Bank
  - Thai Military Bank
  - Office of National Savings
  - Krungsri Bank
  - Bangkok Bank
  - Kasikorn Bank
  - True Money

Payment of Contributions form (Form SSO 1-11).

Methods for Paying Contributions

- Fellowship and cost contributions to the Social Security Fund amount to 9% of the salary paid to each insured worker. Insured persons and employers are responsible for contributions to the Social Security Fund.

Application Documents

Qualified Applicants

- Aged not less than 15 years
- A disabled person who knows security laws
- A person exempted under social security laws
- Aged not less than 60 years
- Minor group person with identification card (ID) not having Thai nationality,

Application to become an insured person

- Submitting contributions for 3 months of 4 months prior to the month in which injuries or illnesses occurred.
- Submitting contributions of 1 month for each 6 months prior to the month of death.
- Except in cases of accidents if not submitting contributions for not less than 12 months and having left the job.
- If the amount used for the calculation of 6,000 baht is less than 6,000 baht, the insured person shall receive cash benefits under Section 34 of the Social Security Act. In this case, the insured person shall receive cash benefits under Section 34 of the Social Security Act.

For a disabled person under Section 33 or Section 39

- Having submitted contributions for 3 months of 4 months prior to the month in which injuries or illnesses occurred.
- Submitting contributions for 3 months of 4 months prior to the month in which injuries or illnesses occurred.
- Submitting contributions for 6 of 12 months prior to the month of death.
- Except in cases of accidents if not submitting contributions for not less than 12 months and having left the job.

Application to become an insured person

- Receive an additional 50 baht
- Receive an additional 150 baht

Data as of January 2019

- 20,000
- 15,000
- 5,000
- 4,000

Benefits for the Insured Persons Under Section 40

Eligibility conditions

- 70 years
- 65 years
- 60 years

Social Security Benefits

- Monthly payment to an insured person under Section 33 of 10,000 baht per month.

Methods for Paying

- Federation
- In cash
- On credit
- In installments

Covered by the Social Security Act

- Maternity Benefits
- Sickness Benefits
- Old Age Benefits
- Child Allowance Benefits
- Disability Benefits
- Maternity Benefits

Not covered

- Unemployment Benefits
- Old Age Benefits
In case of juristic persons:

- The employer can carry out pertinent transactions via the internet by accessing the registration form at the Social Security Office in the province in which the establishment is located. In such cases, a copy of the identification (ID) card of the person with authorizing power is required.

- If the employer is a limited liability company (limited by shares), joint stock company, limited liability partnership (limited by shares), or joint stock partnership, regulations and minutes for appointment of a manager or letter of establishing partnership, juristic persons, condominiums, housing estates, foundations, etc., must be submitted. If the employer is a sole shareholder company or limited liability company (limited by shares) in which the single shareholder is the employer who has a power of attorney, a copy of the ID card of the empowering person is required.

- If the employer is a limited partnership (limited by shares), the mandatory registration documents include regulations and minutes for appointment of a manager or letter of establishing partnership, juristic persons, condominiums, housing estates, foundations, etc., and a copy of the ID card of the empowering person.

- If the employer is a corporation, limited by shares, or unlimited liability partnership, each document must reflect the type of business and characteristics of employers according to immigration law must be submitted. In case in which members of the board of authorized directors/partners are foreigners, passports, work permits, visas, or alien certificate or Non-Thai ID card (pink card) issued for renting such establishment.

- 2.1 Sole proprietorships use only ID card.

- 3. Power of attorney (only appertaining to cases in which another person or authorized signatory of the corporate body is the employer cannot register as an insured person.

- 3. Power of attorney (only appertaining to cases in which another person or authorized signatory of the corporate body is the employer cannot register as an insured person. **

- When does one have the right to receive social security benefits?

- Submit at the Social Security Office Bangkok areas/provincial branches in the province in which the establishment is located.

- Before submitting the application for social security contribution in the SSO, the employer and the insured person must sign the agreement with the SSO that contains the condition that the employer will contribute the social security contributions in 13 months.

- Payment through a representative account included the following:
  - The employer can apply for having the bank account within the Social Security Office.
  - The employer can pay contributions to Social Security Office through the bank account.

- A. When will the insured receive benefits scheduled:

  1. An insured female

  2. Maternity benefits

  3. Pregnancy test and antenatal care expenses

  4. Treatment at Public Hospitals

  5. Unemployment Benefits

  6. Disability Benefits

  7. Child Allowance Benefits

  8. Old Age Benefits

  9. Death Benefits

  10. Sickness Benefits

- B. Where can social security benefits be obtained?

- C. When does the Social Security Fund receive the contribution?

- D. What is the Social Security contribution?

- E. How much is the Social Security contribution?

- F. How do employers apply for social security contribution?

- G. How to notify of cessation of being an insured person?

- H. How to apply for reinstatement?

- I. How to apply for a guarantee or insurance?

- J. How to apply for the facilities provided?

- K. How to apply for compensation?

- L. How to apply for a change of insured person?

- M. How to apply for众人 to receive social security contributions?

- N. How to apply for the facilities provided?

- O. How to apply for compensation?

- P. How to apply for a change of insured person?

- Q. How to apply for众人 to receive social security contributions?

- R. How to apply for the facilities provided?

- S. How to apply for compensation?

- T. How to apply for a change of insured person?

- U. How to apply for众人 to receive social security contributions?

- V. How to apply for the facilities provided?

- W. How to apply for compensation?

- X. How to apply for a change of insured person?

- Y. How to apply for众人 to receive social security contributions?

- Z. How to apply for the facilities provided?